

NOVEMBER PAC NEWSLETTER

EARTHQUAKE COMFORT KITS

ATTENTION!!! To date only 120 of the 316 earthquake comfort kits have been returned to the school. What are you waiting for? Please send your child's comfort kit to school by Monday, November 21st.

Kits should include: water, (nut free) snacks, granola bars, raisins, something that comforts your child (could be a small stuffie, family picture, note from Mom & Dad). Please send labelled with child's name in a Ziploc.

Bouquets: At each PAC meeting we start with a time for people to share thanks!

- Thanks to Tina for her work on the Entertainment Book fundraiser.
- Thanks to Cindy and Shanna for organizing a wonderful Halloween Bash & Dance.
- Thanks to all the parents that helped at the Halloween Bash, special thanks to Mr. Hendy for all his help and performance the night of the dance.
- Thanks to Calvin Black, Heather Anderson and Lois Bender for organizing and working with the Cross-Country team and a big thanks to Brad Curry for organizing Olympic athlete Hillary Stellingwerff to come and run with the group.
- Thanks to Malia for developing the monthly PAC newsletter.
- Thanks to Judy Carruth for organizing a school wide "sleep day". The students enjoyed the pajama day and activities. Approx. $600 was raised for the sleep day charity.
- Thanks to student Emily Hernon for her donation to the playground fund.

November PAC Meeting Highlights

A few things from the last PAC meeting you may want to know:

- Report Cards are coming December 7th. This year teachers have 2 formats to choose from. One is CSL - a traditional number or letter grade report format. The other is called Fresh Grade and is an online portfolio style.
- Did you know you can export the school calendar to your handheld device? Visit the school website to export the calendar today!
- Each PAC meeting starts with bouquets. You can send an item of thanks: pacatmarigold@gmail.ca

Next PAC Meeting is Monday, December 5th @ 6:30pm - School Library.

Please come to share your ideas and learn more about what is happening in our school.
